

A1

Describe, compare and contrast the pictures. Then answer the question below.

Why do people like going to public events?

A2

Describe, compare and contrast the pictures. Then answer the question below.

What kind of activities should the government provide for young people?

Describe, compare and contrast the pictures. Then answer the question below.

What can people do in the library?

Describe, compare and contrast the pictures. Then answer the question below.

Is it important to have good public speaking skills?

A5

Describe, compare and contrast the pictures. Then answer the question below.

What can people learn in such situations?

A6

Describe, compare and contrast the pictures. Then answer the question below.

Should children be allowed to explore nature on their own?

A7

Describe, compare and contrast the pictures. Then answer the question below.

How can technology help us in natural disasters?

A8

Describe, compare and contrast the pictures. Then answer the question below.

What are the advantages of having four seasons?

A9

Describe, compare and contrast the pictures. Then answer the question below.

What makes a good home?

A10

Describe, compare and contrast the pictures. Then answer the question below.

Does painting require more skills than photography?